

'Tipping Point' Change Management Facilitator Training

Add the Tipping Point Workshop, featuring the Tipping Point change management simulator to your training toolkit. This is one of the most powerful training experiences ever developed for understanding sustainable organisational change.

Attend a Tipping Point Workshop Facilitator Training Course to begin using this powerful tool in your work to facilitate & support change.

The Facilitator Training is delivered for groups or individuals through a combination of 5 online training sessions plus directed study to be completed in your own time.

A face-to-face training option, a 2-day course, will be available again post lockdown when face to face training is safe to deliver.

The Workshop uses the interactive Tipping Point computer simulation, to create an experiential learning environment to help participants discover principles that are applicable to any organisational change. The Workshop is delivered regularly for groups and teams by licensed facilitators - trainers, change leaders, change agents, project leaders, consultants and business advisers. Complete the Tipping Point Facilitator Training course to begin using this powerful tool in your ongoing work.

Who is the Tipping Point Facilitator Training for?

Anyone leading/supporting/advising implementation of organisational change. This powerful Workshop, and the simulation at its heart, can help you to increase the impact and cost-effectiveness of the change process. Help your colleagues/clients to save weeks or months of frustration by recognising the critical success factors early in any change process.

What you get

- Training led by Master Trainer Dr. David Yarrow, who has led many Tipping Point Workshops and Facilitator Training Programmes and works closely with the author of the Workshop and the Simulation, Dr. Andrea Shapiro.
- Guided experience of facilitating the Workshop in the training context.
- Facilitator materials (extensive guidance & licensed access to the Tipping Point simulation software).
- You'll be certified to deliver Tipping Point Workshops, and licensed for the first six months.

Investment

Investment in this training for a group is £3,800 for up to 6 participants, payable on booking, plus any applicable venue/equipment costs and the Trainer's travel/accommodation/subsistence expenses. For additional participants, add £400 per person, up to a maximum of 12 participants.

The investment for individuals booking places on a public training course is £1,475, payable on registration.

- NOTES
